Note for the Reader.

THE present completes the fifth volume of the Parish Registers of that part of Lichfield Diocese which is situated in Shropshire.

As before, the Registers are given in abstract, but all facts are noted. They are printed from their commencement down to the year 1812, after which Rose's Act came into force, and lasted until the present style of registration was adopted in 1837.

Thanks are due to the clergy of the respective parishes who have so kindly facilitated the work of transcription, and have permitted the Registers to be printed.

The services of those who have helped by transcribing the Registers must here be specially noted. Those who have thus helped are:—Mr. G. William S. Sparrow, Mr. T. R. Horton, the late Mr. William Phillips, Mr. R. E. Davies, the Rev. J. E. Auden, the Rev. A. H. Mawson, Miss Kenyon, of Hordley Rectory, the Rev. W. G. Craven, and Miss E. C. Hope-Edwardes. The Rev. W. G. D. Fletcher and Mr. R. Ll. Kenyon have helped both in the work of transcription and in that of collation.

The Register of Astley.

Astley Registers.

Astley is a chapelry in the parish of St. Mary, Shrewsbury, diocese of Lichfield, rural deanery of Wem, and hundred and division of Albrighton, and it was formerly in the Liberties of Shrewsbury. The area is 1204 acres, and the population in 1891 was 244. It lies 4½ miles north-east from Shrewsbury.

The Parish Register Abstract, 1831, gives this account of the Astley Registers:—"Astley C. No. 1, Bap., Bur., Mar., 1680—1694. No. II., III. (Parchment), Bap., Bur., 1695—1801, Mar. 1695—1753. No. IV. (Parchment) Bap., Bur., 1802—1812. No. V., Mar., 1754—1812."

Unfortunately Register No. I., 1680—1694, is not now to be found at Astley, although diligent search has been made for it. A loose paper is preserved with the existing registers, which may have been the first leaf of this missing book. At the top of this paper is written;—

"Bought by Edward Trevor, Chappell warden in the year 1680."

At the foot of the page this couplet is written:—

"Let all young men bee sober, just, and true Least age ye dayes of youth may chance to rue."

"Peter Morgan, 1692."

In George Morris's M.S. "Extracts from Shropshire Registers, &c.," are fourteen extracts from the Astley Register, but only two that seem to have been taken from the missing volume.

Morris states that the "Register begins May 13, 1579." but this earliest register was presumably missing in 1831, and of course there is no trace of it now.

The first extant volume, 1695 to 1734 (No. II. above) contains 15 pages of parchment, measuring 8 inches by 7 inches. In it are entries of baptisms and burials. It is in fair preservation. The second extant volume, 1734 to 1801 (No. III.) contains 17 pages of parchment, 10 inches by 6 inches. It is a register of baptisms and burials, and of marriages till 1755. This book, as also the two remaining volumes, are very well preserved.

The third extant volume, 1801 to 1812 (No. IV.) contains 30 parchment pages, only five of which are used. It contains entries of baptisms and burials. The pages measure 11 inches by 7 inches.

The fourth volume (No. V. above) is the usual printed form of marriage register. It is a paper book of 32 pages, 15 inches by 9½ inches; and contains ten marriages only from 1755 to 1812.

Where the Clergyman himself has kept the register, it has been exceedingly well written, but it appears to have been left during very many years to illiterate clerks.

The names to which the word 'Mr.' has been prefixed are Maddox, Evans, and Boudler. 'Mrs.' occurs before Roggers and Kilvert. The Maddox family were owners of property at Astley from an early period.

The following is a list of the Clergy named in the Register:—

Daniel Plumpton, curate, 1710.

Leonard Hotchkiss, M.A., St. John's College, Cambridge, curate 1713, Head-master of Shrewsbury School, 1735—1754.

Rowland Tench, minister, 1714—1727.

Samuel Betton, curate, 1728, minister, 1734, died 22 Oct. 1761.

James Atcherley, M.A., Magdalene College, Cambridge, minister, 1761, Head-master of Shrewsbury School, 1771—1798, died 3 March, 1804.

John Pitchford signs the register of births and baptisms as "officiating minister" in 1799 and 1800, and as "minister" in 1801 and 1802. He signs the marriage register as "minister" from 1799 to 1803.

Thomas S. Browne, minister, 1804.

John Atcherley, H.M.R.N., Dec. 16th, 1804.

James Matthews, M.A., Magdalene College, Cambridge, signs as "officiating minister" in 1795, and as "minister" in 1810, 1812, and 1815; buried 24 June, 1825.

William Vaughan, 1830—1861.

John Robert Legh, M.A., St. John's College, Cambridge, 1861—1883.

Arthur George Brooke, 1883—1899.

George Owen Holt, 1899.

The Church, which is dedicated to St. Mary, consists of chancel, nave, and western tower. In the south wall is a fine Norman doorway, now built up. The building was restored in 1883. The patronage was formerly in the gift of the Corporation of Shrewsbury and the Head-master of the Free School; but for some time past has been vested in trustees.

Astley is written Hesleie in Domesday, and in Saxon times it had belonged to the Church of St. Mary, Shrewsbury. To the repairs of the mother church, the inhabitants of Astley and Clive were bound to contribute, though from time to time they endeavoured, but unsuccessfully, to free themselves from this burden. At the dissolution of St. Mary's College, Queen Elizabeth granted its lands and rents in Astley to Shrewsbury Free School, but the stipend of the Curate of Astley was to be paid out of the School revenues.

The history of Astley, by the late Rev. J. B. Blakeway, is printed in the Shropshire Archæological Society's Transactions, Second Series, I. 118—128.

The transcripts of the Astley Registers were formerly returned to the Vicar of St. Mary's, Shrewsbury. Those for the years 1708—1753, and 1799 to 1812, are preserved there, and are in some cases fuller than the original register. This additional information is given in brackets in the present copy of the register. The names of the clergy and churchwardens signing the transcripts are printed at the end of the register.

The present transcript of the Astley registers was made by Mr. G. W. S. Sparrow, of Albrighton Hall, who has compared it with the transcripts at St. Mary's, and has also compared the proof-sheets, as they passed through the press, with the original registers. It is here printed by kind permission of the Rev. George Owen Holt, the present Vicar of Astley.

N.B.—It appears on inspection that this register has been negligently kept during the years 1760 and 1761, and from 1772 to 1795, inclusive. Among many other omissions are the following (on sufficient evidence):—

1793,	Nov.	10.	John, s. of John Billington and Ann ...	bap.
1795,	Oct.	4.	William, s. of Edward Rice and Ann ...	bap.

On sufficient evidence, JAMES MATTHEWS, Officiating Minister.

[The entries from 1791 to 1794 are also written on the fly-leaf at the end of the book. They were probably written there by a clerk. The only differences between the two versions are:—

1.—1791, Dec. 13. Jane, d. of Thomas Morgin and Mary bap.
the entry in the former place being, "Ann, d. of Thomas Morgan, etc.

The Register of Withington.

Withington Registers.

WITHINGTON is a parish 6 miles east from Shrewsbury, and 5 miles west from Wellington, in the diocese of Lichfield, rural-deanery of Wrockwardine, and hundred of South Bradford. It contains 1,144 acres, and the population in 1881 was 259. In 1676 there were 91 "conformists" above the age of 16 in Weithington, which shows that the population has increased in 200 years.

The Parish Register Abstract, 1831, contains this note of the Withington Registers:—"Withington P.C., Nos. I.—IV Registers, 1592—1812."

The earliest volume consists of 33 parchment leaves, 10½ inches by 4½ inches, in a torn parchment cover. Some leaves have been been cut away; many have been much stained with some brown liquid that has been applied to them, to bring out the faded ink. Although the register is generally well written, it is very difficult to decipher. It contains entries of baptisms from 1591 to 1700, burials from 1592 to 1711, and marriages from 1592 to 1712, each class separately, and at the end of the book marriages from 1701 to 1713.

Volume II. consists of 15 leaves of vellum, 14 inches by 8½ inches, in a parchment cover. It commences in 1713, and contains entries of baptisms and burials to 1784, and of marriages to 1753. The entries on the first page are arranged in columns, which are headed:—"yeare of youre Lord; months and days; The persons names; marriages; births; baptised; burials." From 1716 to 1726, the entries are in a beautifully-printed handwriting; the rest of the book is in various hands, Roger Kynaston's to 1731, then in the handwriting of Edward Vaughan, William Grascome, and Corbet Browne, a good deal of the register being in an illiterate hand.

Volume III. contains 24 vellum leaves, 13½ inches by 8 inches, in a leather cover, lettered "Whithington, 1784," and 21 of these are written on. It is generally well written, and in good condition. The entries from 1784 to 1788, 1792 to 1794, and three Browne entries in 1803 and 1805, are in the handwriting of Corbet Browne. From 1789 to 1792, and 1794 to 1808, they are in an illiterate hand, perhaps the parish clerk's. From 1808 to 1812, Richard Pitchford made the entries.

Volume IV. is the usual printed form of marriage Register, and contains 54 entries of marriage from 1754 to 1812. It is a paper book, in a parchment cover.

The principal families that occur in the register are those of Crompton, Maddox, Tayleur, Whitingam, and Holbrook, all styled "Mr." or "gent." Other families of interest are Kylvert, Grosvenor, and Blakeway.

The incumbents whose names occur in the register are as follows:—

1654—84. James Smith.

17..—31. Roger Kynaston.

1736—45. William Grascome, M.A., Queen's College, Oxford · also rector of Upton Magna.

1752—1807. Corbet Browne, M.A., Queen's College, Cambridge; also rector of Upton Magna; died 6th Nov., 1807.

1808—54. Corbet Browne, B.A., St. John's College, Cambridge; also rector of Upton Magna; died 17th April, 1854.

1854—56. J. Dingle.

1856—64. John Faithfull Fanshawe, B.A. Corpus Christi College, Cambridge.

1864—67. J. H. Simpson.

1867—89. John Thomas Halke, LL.B., St. John's College, Cambridge.

1889—94. John Philip Dalton, afterwards vicar of Alberbury.

1894—95. Sydney Gilbert Mansbridge, M.A. Trinity College, Dublin.

1895. William Astbury Meakin.

These curates occur in the register:—Edward Vaughan, 1731—33; Robert Tench, 1758; Richard Pitchford, 1809—11; William Macdonald Honyman (now 5th Baronet), 1850—52.

In 1602, Edward Schofield, B.A., occurs curate of Withington, and is described as being "a preacher," with a stipend of £9 per annum.

Withington Church was a Chapel of Upton Magna, and was existing at least as early as 1150. The present Church, which is dedicated to St. John the Baptist, was re-built in 1874. It consists of chancel, nave, north porch, and western tower. On the north wall of the tower is a brass to John, son and heir of Sir Robert Onley of the city of Coventry, who died 19th June, 1512, and Joan his wife, also a group of seven sons, and the arms of Onley and the City of Coventry. On the south wall is a brass to Master Adam Graffton, "the most worshipfull prest lyvyng in hys days," chaplain to King Edward V. and Prince Arthur, Warden of Battlefield College and Dean of St. Mary's, and parson of Withington, who died 24th July, 1530. Grafton was rector of Upton with Withington in 1494. There are also tablets to the Rev. Corbet Browne and various members of his family.

The patronage of Withington is vested in the rector of Upton Magna, and these two churches have frequently been held by the same incumbent.

At Domesday, Fulcuius held Wientone of Earl Roger; on his death his estates escheated to the crown. Withington was afterwards held by the Haughtons. The Rev. George Wm. Corbet of Sundorne Castle, is the present lord of the manor and patron of Upton Magna and Withington.

The present transcript was made by Mr. T. R. Horton, and has since been collated with the original register by the Rev. W. G. D. Fletcher, F.S.A., who has also seen the proof-sheets as they passed through the press. It is now printed by kind permission of the Rev. W. A. Meakin, the present Vicar of Withington.

The Register of Stirchley.

Stirchley Registers.

The Parish Register Abstract, published in 1831, contains the following:—"Stirchley R. No. I., Bap., Bur., 1718—1812; Mar., 1718—1801. No. II., Mar., 1802—1812."

Since then an earlier Register has come to light, extending from July 28th, 1638, to July 27th, 1718. It is on vellum, measuring 13½ inches by 4½ inches, and consists of 10½ leaves, pages 15 and 16 being blank, as is also the inside of the last leaf. It has been kept folded in the middle, and is torn in several places. The writing is so much faded that in many parts it is illegible, and here and there the same words have been traced afresh by a later hand.

Vol. II. (No. I. mentioned above) is also of vellum, containing 60½ leaves, 29½ of which are blank. It measures 13 inches by 6½ inches, and is bound in strong boards covered with dark brown leather. Although in good preservation, the vellum is much wrinkled from exposure to damp, but the writing is clear and legible. It contains entries of baptisms and burials from 1718 to 1812, and marriages to 1801. The burials from April 9th, 1801, to August 5th, 1812, are entered separately at the end of the book, but in the following transcript they are incorporated with the births and marriages in their order of date.

Vol. III. contains marriages from 1802 to 1812, and is the ordinary printed form.

There are but six names to which "gentleman" is appended, viz.:—Edward Cooke (1680), Hugh Annerley (1784), Thomas Botfield (1801), Margaret Botfield, widow of the preceding (1803), Benjamin Nicholls and Wm. Nicholls (1798). There is also an entry of the marriage of Mrs. Baronas Hayington to Thomas Cheshire, of Wrockwardine, in 1744; when buried she is called Baronas Cheshire, 1755.

The village of Stirchley is 3 miles west from Shifnal, and 2 miles north of Madeley, in the rural deanery of Shifnal, diocese of Lichfield, and hundred of South Bradford. The area of the parish is 833 acres, and the population at the census of 1881 was 258, and in 1891 only 187. In 1676 there were 50 "Conformists" over the age of 16, and no Nonconformists or Roman Catholics.

The church of St. James is a small brick building, consisting of a chancel, nave, and north transept. It was enlarged in 1838 by the late Thomas William and Beriah Botfield, Esqs., who placed a gallery over the transept for the use of their workmen. The chancel is divided from the nave by an exquisite Norman arch, unfortunately, in part, hidden both by the gallery and the reading desk.

There are mural tablets to the memory of the following persons:—Edward Cookes, Alice his wife, and five daughters: on the same tablet is recorded, Bridgett Barroness Cheshire. On another, Thomas Botfield, Gent., and Margaret his wife; and a third is to the memory of Louisa Stamps.

On the north wall of the nave is an escutcheon bearing the arms of Mr. Thomas Clows, who was buried October 19th, 1748:—Azure on a chevron engrailed between 3 unicorns' heads erased or as many crescents gules. Crest, a demi-lion rampant sable, ducally crowned or, supporting a battle-axe of the last, headed argent. The name of this gentleman is on the Benefaction Board:—"Oct. 15th, 1748. Thomas Clowes, Gentleman, gave by his will to the poor of Stirchley the yearly sum of twenty Shillings, payable out of Stirchley Hall Estates, to be distributed on St. Thomas's Day by the Churchwardens and Overseers.—May 20, 1839.—H. M. Phillips Rector. Wm. Smith, Churchwarden." On the same Board appears the following:—"June 26th, 1725, Rich. Cookes, Gentleman, gave by will to the Poor of Stirchley a Yearly Rent of seventeen Shillings, payable out of certain Premises belonging to John Roden at Stirchley, to be distributed by the Minister and Overseers."

Of the foundation of Stirchley, Eyton says ("Antiquities," vol. viii, p. 123):—"This was in its original state a chapel, probably in the Parish of Idsall [Shifnal], and founded by the Manorial Lords of Stirchley in the twelfth century. Its architectural features are alone sufficient to prove this antiquity of foundation. The subjection of Stirchley to Idsall has long since vanished. How or by whom the Advowson of Stirchley was given to Wenlock Priory I cannot say. We have seen that the Prior's title thereto was ratified by a fine in 1238. The Taxation of 1291 values the Church of Stirchley in the Deanery of Newport at £2 13s. 4d. per annum. In 1341 the Assessors of the Ninth taxed the Parish at 40s. There were no sheep here, and a third of the Manor was held in hand by the Abbot of Buildwas, who was not assessable to the current Tax. In an Inquest of the year 1379 the Church of Stirchley is valued at 100s. per annum, and certified to be in the gift of Wenlock Priory."

The Register of Uffington.

Uffington Registers.

Uffington is a parish and village three miles north-east from Shrewsbury, in the diocese of Lichfield, rural deanery of Shrewsbury, and hundred of Bradford (south division). Its area, including Pimley, is 1,401 acres. Haughmond Demesne, containing 1,654 acres, formerly extra-parochial, was united to Uffington by Order of Council on 5 December, 1884. The population of Uffington was 120 in 1801, and 150 in 1811. In 1891 there were 154 persons in Uffington, and 155 in Haughmond Demesne; total population 309. In 1901 the population was 336.

The Parish Register Abstract, 1837, has this account of the Uffington Registers:—" Uffington P.C. Nos. I., II., Bap., Bur., 1578—1812. No. III., Marr., 1754—1812."

Vol. I., which extends from 1578 to 1729, consists of 44 parchment leaves 12 inches by 5¼ (some 6¼) inches, in boards with a leather back. From 1578 to 1600 it is copied from an old paper register, each page being signed by Thomas Ferington, John Yonge, and Richard Morreys. After 1609 there is a gap; then follows a blank page, with " Uffington Register " written on it. From 1682, larger parchment leaves are used, perhaps another Register fastened on. At the beginning of the volume is a list of Collections at Fasts in 1626—7. The register is generally clear and well written, but some leaves have been stained with some brown liquid.

Vol. II. extends from 1729 to 1812, but marriages only to 1753. It consists of 35 leaves of parchment, 13½ by 8¼ inches, in a brown leather cover. Eleven of the leaves are blank. It is generally very well written and in good condition. At the end of the volume are a number of Terriers, and statistics of baptisms, marriages, and burials, &c.

Vol. III., which contains marriages from 1754 to 1812, is the ordinary printed form of marriage Register, and is a paper book in a parchment cover.

The principal families entered in the Register are those of Yonge of Pimley, Barker of Haughmond, Kynaston of Adbrightlee. Corbet of Sundorne, Dod, Horner, Acherley, Stanier, and Leighton. The Clarkes of Uffington were ancestors of some celebrated Cambridge scholars and travellers. The Munslows, Ralphs, and Cartwrights, still of Uffington, all appear frequently in the earliest register.

The parish, including Haghmond Demesne, contains the beautiful ruins of Haughmond Abbey, Haughmond Hill, Sundorne Castle, and Pimley Manor, all the property of the Rev. G. W. Corbet.

Uffington, which derives its name from some Saxon Uffa, was held before the Conquest by Genut and Elveva. At Domesday it was held by Helgot under Earl Roger, and contained 5 hides and was worth 30s. From Helgot it descended to the de la Mares, and in 1102 Robert de la Mare returning from the Crusades on his death-bed at Benevento bequeathed Uffington to Haughmond Abbey. The abbey continued to hold Uffington in frank-almoign of the Barony of Castle Holdgate. It afterwards passed to the Barkers, and from them to the Kynastons, and ultimately to the Corbets of Sundorne, who now own the manor and advowson.

The Church was originally founded by the de la Mares, and, the manor being originally in St. Alkmund's parish, passed circa 1155 to Lilleshall Abbey. The Abbot of Lilleshall, as rector of St. Alkmund's, appointed a chaplain to serve Uffington. The old Early English Church of the Holy Trinity was a plain structure, built of the rubble stone of the locality, and measured 40 feet by 18 feet; it was found to be in so bad a state, that it had to be almost entirely rebuilt in 1856. The present building consists of nave, chancel, western bell-turret, north aisle and south porch, and was consecrated on 21 May, 1856, the architect being Mr. S. P. Smith of Shrewsbury.

The following is a list of the Incumbents of Uffington during the period covered by the Registers:—

The Register of Ruyton=in=the=Eleven=Towns.

Ruyton-in-the-Eleven-Towns Registers.

The Parish Register Abstract of 1831 describes these Registers as follows: "Ruyton-in-the-Eleven-Towns V. No. 1., Bap. Bur., 1719—1786; Marr., 1719—1753. No. II., Bap. Bur., 1787—1812. No. III., IV., Marr., 1754—1812."

The earlier Registers are said to have been burnt in a fire at the Vicarage about the middle of the 18th century. Probably transcripts will be found in the Diocesan Registry whenever it becomes possible to make arrangements for a search there.

The Parish Register Abstract correctly describes the contents of the existing Volumes, which are all bound in parchment covers. On the outside of the first is the following description:—

"Of the Parish of Ruyton-xi-Towns the Register of Baptisms, Marriages, and Burials altogether from 1719 to 1754. Register of Baptisms and Burials together from 1754 to 1763. Register of Burials carried on alone from 1763 to 1786. And Register of Baptisms carried on alone (begining from the other end of this book) from 1763 to 1786."

On the inside of the cover is a book-plate with a book and 3 crowns within an oval border, the name Samuel Story, and the date 1718. On the book-plate is printed "Samuel Story, Stationer at the Bible and 3 Crowns in Little St. Bartholomews, near the Cloysters by West Smithfield, London," and a list of wares sold there.—Above it is written in ink "from 1612—1630 inclusive, the Rev. Wm. Blakeway"; the paper on which the sentence should be concluded is torn away. Below the book-plate is written:—

"No flatt'ry here, where to be born and die
Of rich and poor is all the History:
Enough, if Virtue filled the space between Proved by the Ends of Being, to have been."

The spelling inside the volume is not better than that outside, but the writing is generally clear and distinct, though uneducated. Many of the names still familiar in Ruyton occur amongst the earliest entries, thus in the first year, 1719, we find not only Williams, Richards, Baker, Davies, &c., which are common elsewhere, but Braddock, Gittens and Glover, which are local. Very few particulars as to age, trade, or anything else are given. No instance occurs of anyone having two Christian names until 16 Nov., 1779, when Anna Maria Baker was baptized; and they are by no means common in any of the registers now printed. On Dec. 16, 1740, Robert Roberts, "pauper et servus," was buried; the baptism of triplets is recorded 23 Aug., 1741, and there is nothing to show that all three children did not grow up. "John Richards, Cumro," is mentioned three times, in 1741, 1749, and 1750. Cumro was evidently the name he usually went by, perhaps because he was a Welshman. Thomas Payne is described as a Collar-man in 1754 and 1758; possibly he was a saddler, and made horse collars. Weavers are mentioned occasionally; otherwise the trades which occur are those still practised, baker, shoemaker, wheelwright, blacksmith, cooper, stone-cutter.

Anne Sides, aged 100, was buried 4 May, 1764. The baptisms of a few foundlings are recorded, as on 12 April, 1776; a few children are entered as base-born; in 1753, a married woman was baptised "according to the service appointed for the baptism of those of riper years"; and in and after 1765, "christened" is distinguished from "baptized," the former term being equivalent to "received into the Church." In the nine months from November, 1775, to July, 1776, 16 persons died of small-pox.

The 2nd volume has on the outside the inscription: "Of the Parish of Ruyton-xi-Towns the Register of Baptisms from 1786 to 1813, and Register of Burials (beging from the other end of this book) from 1786 to 1813." It is very carelessly kept till about 1802, the entries being very few and irregular, and evidently often inserted some time after the event recorded. The curious Christian names occur of Gaardnier, 1787; Sinah, 1796; Anwyl, 1803. Many "base" children are mentioned and the name of the reputed father is generally entered. The age at death is generally given from 1797 onwards, but not before. The following curious note is inserted:—"Friday, May 18, 1804. On Tuesday last Mr. Read, surgeon, of Ruyton, safely delivered the wife of Thomas Rogers of the Wenn Lece in the Parish of Kinnerley in this County of two children united together."

The 3rd volume is inscribed outside: "Register of Marriages from 1754 to 1810." It was probably originally intended for a different purpose, for this inscription is later than, and partly written over, the following quotations, which are respectively from Iliad I., 7, 8, and Lucretius III., 3, 6, but have no possible connection with Parish Registers:—

Ατρειδης τε αναξ αι·δρων και διος Αχιλλευς
Τις τ' αρ σφωε θεων εριδι συνεηκε μαχεσθαι.

Te sequor O Graiæ Gentis Decus, inque tuis nunc
Ficta pedum pono pressis vestigia signis
Non ita certandi cupidus, quam propter amorem
Quod te imitare aveo.
'Tis thee I follow Graian Bard.

The Register of Marriages is much better kept than that of births and deaths, each marriage being entered on a printed form, in accordance with Lord Hardwicke's Act of 1754. This shows whether the marriage was by banns or license, by whom performed, and by whom witnessed. The condition of the parties is generally but by no means always given, and often the occupation of the husband. Among these may be noticed taw-dresser, i.e., leather dresser, and cordwainer, i.e., shoemaker.

The 4th volume is similar in all respects to the 3rd and is inscribed outside: "Register of Marriages from 1810 to 1813." On the first blank page, however, are the names "Peter Shelvocke and Richard Wilkinson, Churchwardens, 1760," and the first four marriages entered in the book are of that year. This is explained by a note in the previous volume, which says that that was mislaid for a time and a new volume (i.e., the present one) bought, but that on the old one being found the four marriages entered in the new one were transcribed into the old. The new one was again taken into use when the old one was filled up, in 1810, but was used only till the end of 1812, in which year a new form of Register was prescribed by law. Accordingly this book contains only the four marriages of 1760, and ten others of 1810 and 1812. The rest is blank.

Ruyton Church was built about 1140, as a Chapelry of Baschurch, for the townships of Ruyton and Coton only, which then constituted the whole of the Manor of Ruyton. About 1155 the Manor of Ruyton was united to the two other Manors of Wikey and Felton, the whole being called the Manor or Lordship of Ruyton, as the Castle, which was probably built at the same time as the Church, made Ruyton the most important of the three Manors. Together they comprised eleven townships, from which the Manor got the name of Ruyton-of-the-Eleven-Towns. About 1230 the Parish of Ruyton was created; but the old Manor of Felton, containing five of the eleven towns, had been included for nearly 100 years in the independent Parish of Felton, so that the new Parish of Ruyton was made to consist not of the whole of the eleven townships of the Manor but of the six not included in Felton Parish. It is for this reason that it is called the Parish of Ruyton-in-the-Eleven-Towns. A framed list of incumbents, complete or nearly so from 1325, hangs in the Church Porch, and histories of the Manor, the Church, the Borough, and the Townships comprised in the Parish, have been published in the Transactions of the Shropshire Archæological Society for 1891, 1894, 1896, 1900, 1901, and 1902 respectively. Not much additional information is to be got from the Registers; but they show that the Vicar, William Griffiths, resigned before his death; for he was buried 2 Jan., 1720, old style, after the institution of his successor, Edward Jeffreys, 10 Oct., 1720. Also that Corbet Kynaston died at Shelvock, and was buried at Moreton Corbet, 21 June, 1740, and that William Kinaston of Ruyton was buried, 7 March, 1748-9. The burial at Ruyton is recorded of Richard Jeffreys, Vicar of Baschurch, 19 April, 1742, and of Mrs. Jeffreys of Baschurch, 14 March, 1774. Presumably they were related to Edward Jeffreys, Vicar of Ruyton. The Marriage Registers from 1754 give the names of the Curates and neighbouring Clergy who performed marriages at Ruyton; John Thornes, Curate of Kinnerley, 1755; Robert Jeffreys, Vicar of Baschurch, 1758 to 1763

(evidently there were two successive Jeffreys Vicars); Thomas Atcherley, described as "minister" only, 1759 to 1761; J. Morris, Curate of Ruiton, 1760; William Parry, Vicar of Great Ness, 1760—1766; John Powell, Curate of Ruyton, 1760—1; Thomas Roberts, Curate, 1762—4; David Morris, Curate of Baschurch, frequently from 1771 to 1809; Thomas Frank, Clerk, 1778; David Prichard, Vicar of Kinnerley, 1779 (this was no doubt the Rev. David Prichard who built Pradoe); Peter Basnett, Minister, frequently from 1783 to 1799; David Evans, Curate, 1785—8, who became Vicar in 1788. In May, 1790, a Baschurch couple were married at Ruyton, and a note stated that this was done "Baschurch Church being down, and no duty there at present."

As from 1754 the parties married had to sign the register, we get some indications of the state of education from a comparison of the numbers of those who could write and of those who made their mark. Of the 24 persons married in 1754 to 1757 inclusive, 9 wrote their name, 15 made their mark; of 20 married in 1780 to 1782 inclusive, only 5 men and one woman wrote their names; of the 20 last on the list, 1810 to 1812, only 7 wrote their names. It is clear that throughout the whole period the great majority of the labouring class were unable to write. In 1766 the Vicar was himself married to a woman who made her mark.

The two first volumes of the registers have been transcribed by Miss Kenyon, of Hordley Rectory; the third by Rev. W. D. Craven, Vicar of Ruyton; the fourth, containing only ten marriages, by Mr. R. Ll. Kenyon of Pradoe, who has also collated the whole.

The Register of Leebotwood.

Leebotwood Registers.

Leebotwood is a village in the Hundred and Rural Deanery of Condover, and Diocese of Lichfield, 9 miles South from Shrewsbury and 4 from Church Stretton. Its population in 1891 was 156, and the acreage of the Parish 1,282 acres. In 1676, it possessed 105 inhabitants above the age of 16, of whom one was registered as a Nonconformist. This shows a larger population in the 17th century than Longnor, which now is the larger of the two. In 1086, "Botwood" was a small manor still held by its Saxon owner, but before the time of Henry II. it had been annexed to the Royal manor of Condover, and was regarded as Forest. About 1170, the king gave to Haughmond Abbey two tracts of land in Botwood, with land in Bechcote, and the pasture that had belonged to Bletherus the hermit. The Church of Lee Botwood may have been founded by this hermit, or the Canons of Haughmond may have built both this and the chapel once existing at Bechcote. Before 1182, Bishop Peche granted two charters confirming the Canons in their possession of the "Chapels of Lega and Bechcote," both within the Parish of St. Andrew of Condover. The second charter mentions that the consent of the Archdeacon of Salop and of all the then Portioners of Condover had been given to this appropriation, "And let the said Chapels be served as they are now, by one of the Canons of Haughmond, or by one Secular Chaplain, removable at the will of the Abbot, and who shall receive the Cure from the Abbot's hand so long as he shall there remain. And in the same Chapel of Lega let there be for ever a Baptistery and a right of Sepulture." This latter clause made Lee Botwood Church independent of Condover, and gave it its present status.

In 1320, the Abbot of Haughmond received the grant from King Edward II. of a weekly market to be held on Thursdays at Leye in Botewoode. The Canons retained their estates here till 1541-2, when they received a rental of £18 19s. 8½d. from Leebotwood, 10s. of it being the rent of a messuage. The Church is not mentioned at that date, though the "Ferm of the Chapel of Bechcote" is accounted for as worth £1.

In 1546, the manor of Leebotwood is mentioned in the marriage settlement of Thomas Corbett, of Longnor, and Katherine Lee, of Langley, and in 1635, the rectory and parsonage of Leebotwood, and the free chapel of Longnor, were among the possessions of the Corbett family.

Possibly the mound between the Station and the Walk Mill was the site of the house of Auti, the Saxon Franklin who owned the half-hide which made up the Domesday manor of Botwood.

In 1327, six inhabitants were assessed for the Subsidy for the wars in France. Two of them bore the name of Walker, and probably pursued their work of fulling cloth at the "Walk" Mill. All of the six were well-to-do, but not wealthy.

The Parish Register Abstract of 1837 has this account of the Leebotwood Registers:—"Leebotwood P.C. No. I., Bap., Bur., 1547—1812, Marr., 1574[?]—1753. No. II., Marr., 1754—1812."

The first volume of the Leebotwood Register extends from 1548 to 1812. It is of paper, with a cover of boards. Some of the leaves are loose, but it appears to be perfect, all but a few lines of the first page, and is legible and in good condition throughout. There are 78 written leaves and some blank ones—the first 45 are written on one side only; the rest on both. The book is very long and narrow, 15 inches by 6. It records baptisms, burials, and weddings till 1775; afterwards, baptisms and burials only. The second volume is a Marriage Register extending from 1754 to 1812, on white vellum, size 15 inches by 9½, and contains 62 entries.

The earlier part, viz., till 1685, is a copy from an older book, taken 1685, and all in one handwriting. No signatures of clergy or churchwardens are given up to that date.

There are some lists at the end of the book, and some on loose pages, of inhabitants, communicants, &c. The earliest is 1691, and is a list of those who undertook so many yards each of the Churchyard. The families mentioned as Esq. or Mr. in the Registers are Corbett, Flint, and Plymley, Shallcrosse, Henaage, Jones, Browne, Dodd, Jeffreys, Blakeway, Colebarne, Ball.

Several bequests to the poor from different members of the Corbett family are recorded in the Registers, and besides these the following people left money to the poor:—1663, Frauncis Walker, of Clungunford; 1802, Lieutenant Beady; 1802, Joseph Plymley, Esqre.; 1804, Mr. Cornelius Whittaker.

There are some quaint entries in the older part: "John of the Parke," "The ould Jone," "Margaret, ante to James Speed," &c.

In 1685, Sir Roger Harris, Bart., was buried at Leebotwood. He was the last baronet of the name. Boreatton, their estate, was sold after the Civil War to the Hunts, and Sir Roger seems to have retired to the neighbourhood from which his family originally came. They lived for generations at Wheathall in Condover parish.

Two breaks occur, one from 1631 to 1658, when a paper containing the entries for both Parishes during that period was burnt. This break is partly filled in by copying the baptisms recorded in family Bibles.

The second break, also affecting both Parishes, is from 1759 to 1777, apparently caused by the Curate's illness. This is also partially filled in on inserted leaves and loose slips of paper in many different hands.

The dedication of the Church is given in the "King's Book" as St. Mary, but the fact of the Wake being fomerly held in the autumn, as the old inhabitants remember, points rather to St. Michael. There is a rude carving of a dragon and a sword on one of the cross-beams. If the dedication to St. Mary is correct, the wake-day may have possibly been originally on "Lady Day in Harvest," i.e., August 15, the Assumption.

A terrier of 1698, signed by John Robins, Curate, and Richd. Jordan and Thos. Cartwright, Wardens, of Leebotwood, says:—"We have no terrier house or glebe lands, but a church yard wh. is let for 2/6 p. ann. Our curate hath 8/10/0 p. ann, paid by the Impropriator, the Honble. Mrs. Anne Corbett, of Salop; each communicant pays the cur. 2d. p. ann., for every cow 1d., bees 1d., every colt 4d. [everything else in kind], as for the surplis fees our Curate hath 14d. for every wedding and 12d. for publishing the Banns of Maty., 4d. for the Churching each woman, takes nothing for the baptizing, 6d. a burying. Our Clerk hath 3d. a house. Our Curate is very well satisfied with what he hath, and we with him."

There is another in 1726 [still signed by John Robins] in which a wedding is 5/- lic., and 2/6 banns, a funeral 10d., "and if there be a sermon is usually 10/-."

The list of early Incumbents is necessarily incomplete, as, owing to the connection with Haughmond Abbey, they are not entered in the Lichfield Diocesan Registers.

The earliest Incumbent whose name is extant is Roger Luter, who made the presentment of the goods of his Church in 1552 to the Commissioners of Edward VI. Sir Thomas Butler, Vicar of Much Wenlock, mentions him as at Leebotwood in 1560.

The following is the presentment referred to:—

The Register of Longnor.

Longnor Registers.

Longnor is a village in the Hundred and Rural Deanery of Condover, and Diocese of Lichfield; it lies 8 miles South from Shrewsbury and 5 from Church Stretton. The population in 1891 was 198, and the acreage of the Parish 814 acres. In 1676, there were 92 inhabitants above the age of 16, one a Nonconformist. The Church, probably originally a chapelry of Condover, is mainly of Early English date. Its dedication is not known, though it is sometimes attributed to St. Bartholomew.

Possibly one of the Sprencheaux family, who were lords of Longnor from c. 1150 to 1308, was the builder of the Church. In the reign of Stephen, Roger de Clinton, Bishop of Chester, confirmed the gift to Shrewsbury Abbey of Condover and its Chapels, among which probably was Longnor. In 1235, Roger Sprencheaux had a fortified manor-house at Longnor, probably the predecessor of the present Hall which Sir Richard Corbett built in 1670.

Domesday Book does not mention Longnor by name, but speaks of the important manor of "Lege" (Lee), which possessed a wood capable of fattening 600 swine, and a mill. Longnor Mill, which still exists, was given, about 1226, by Roger Sprencheaux to Haughmond Abbey. Azo Bigot, who held "Lege" in 1086, under Rainald the Sheriff, gave half a hide in "Longenobre" to Shrewsbury Abbey, but this was commuted for a rent-charge, and finally exchanged by Sir Roger Sprencheaux (III.) for land at Bourton. Several deeds of Roger Sprencheaux (III.) are extant, in one of which he allows Richard Clerk and Emma his wife to enlarge the moat of their house near the Vill of Longnor. Possibly this refers to that still remaining at the Moat House. Between 1304 and 1310, Longnor passed from the Sprencheaux to Griffin de la Pole, son of Griffin, Prince of Powis. In 1312, Griffin sold all his lands in Condover, Lidley, Lee, and the Manor of Longnor to Sir Fulk le Strange, of Blackmere, his cousin. Sir Fulk's grand-daughters took Longnor to the families of Careles and Acton. From that of Careles, part of the manor passed with an heiress to John Corbett, of Habberley, whose descendant, Thomas Corbett, in the time of James I., purchased the portion that belonged to the Actons, and handed the manor in its entirety down to his descendants, the present possessors.

History is silent as to Longnor Chapel till the time of James I., when it is said to have been held (like Leebotwood) by the Abbey of Haughmond, though it is not mentioned in their Cartulary. Among the Longnor deeds are papers respecting "the right or title of the Corbetts to Longnor Chapel as a free Chapel or Chantry, late belonging to the Abbots of Haughmond, and conveyed to the Corbetts with certain lands and tithes since the dissolution of the religious houses; and then in controversy with the Vicar of Condover, who wished to obtain the same as a Chapel-of-Ease to Condover, 'which it never was.'" Longnor, unlike Leebotwood, never in mediæval times possessed the right of burial. Probably there had been for many years a controversy between the Abbot of Haughmond, who wished to divert the funerals and their fees to his Church of Leebotwood, and the Vicar of the original Mother Church. The Registers of Condover show that many Longnor funerals took place there, and the parish books of the 17th century have constant mention of the disputed status of Longnor. The terrier of 1701 says: "The Township of Longnor has a private Chappel. It payes the greater Tyths to the Impropriator but payes no Vickaridge Tyths to the Vicar; neither do communicate at their Parish church on any of the great festivals, nor at any other Time, for what reason I know not."

The "King's Book" calls it a chapel of Condover, but does not give its dedication.

On the end fly-leaf of Longnor 2nd Vol. is a list of Communicants for 1804-5 and 6, at Easter, Whitsuntide, Michaelmas and Xmas.

At Easter, 1804 ...	...	"28 at the early Sacrament."
		"29 at the 2nd Sacrament."

Xmas, 2 Sacraments	...	60

Fourteen inhabitants of Longnor were assessed for the Subsidy for Edward III.'s wars in France in 1327. Fulk le Strange heads the list, but is not assessed at a large sum.

The Parish Register Abstract of 1837 has this account of the Registers:—"Longnor P.C. No. I. (Parchment), Bap., 1586—1685, Marr., 1586—1685, interrupted by No. II., Bap., 1666—1812, Marr., 1666—1753. No. III., Marr., 1754—1812. No Burial ground at Longnor."

The Longnor Register is in three books; the first, on parchment, is from 1586 to 1685; it has no cover or outside page and may have begun as early as Leebotwood in 1548. There are 16 leaves, two of which have had pieces cut off, apparently before they were written on. There is also a small leaf fastened in with three entries on it. The size of the book is 13½ in. by 7¼. The second book is the same size and is on parchment, bound in calf, and lettered on the back "Longor Register." It is from 1666 to 1812. They are both in good condition; the writing of the 1st Volume is pale and illegible in a few places only; that of the 2nd is excellent throughout.

Both Volumes record baptisms and weddings only. Burials were at Condover and Leebotwood; except that of Revd. David Rice in 1784 and his w. in 1773, said to be "interred next to their pew in Longnor Chapel." Also Mrs. Anne Corbett, w. of Robert Corbett, Esqr., was interred in a new vault in the chancel of Longnor Chapel in 1791, but removed to Leebotwood and interred there with her husband in 1804. Between 1586 and 1812 there are two breaks, 1631—1658 and 1759—1757, both filled in as far as possible from private sources.

The Marriage Register, 1754—1812, is a book containing the usual printed forms for marriages, bound in white vellum, 14½ inches by 9½, and contains 57 entries.

The Longnor Register opens with the name of Corbett in 1586, and contains many Corbett entries throughout its course; no other well-known family appears; Flint and Plymley*, who inter-married with the Corbetts, are also registered as "Esqre." or "Mr." Besides these, the following are entered as "Mr." in the Registers:—Hunt, Santley, Acton, Moseley, Careless, Atkis, Whittaker.

In 1595, Mary, wife of Mr. Edward Corbett, of Longnor, was buried at Condover, and in 1608, Edward Corbett, Esqre., and Thomas Hunt were both buried there.

George Corbett, gent., in 1665, provides "a Silver Communion Cup to the use of Longnor Chappel."
